

Camp Erin Online- Expanding the Camp Erin Reach

- Author - Custom Resource by the Eluna Team

Camp Erin is the largest national bereavement program for youth who are grieving the death of a significant person in their lives. Traditionally, Camp Erin partners with grief organizations to offer bereavement camps where youth learn to grieve and heal. In 2022, we are expanding our reach by launching Camp Erin Online!

Camp Erin Online will offer a variety of support opportunities, including:?

- Camp Erin Online Camps (Youth and Family)?
- Online Support Groups?
- Online Expression Workshops?
- Online Personalized Support?

Camp Erin Online is currently accepting applications for the first program, Gratitude and Grief on December 3rd, 2022!

Camp Erin Online Family Workshop: Gratitude and Grief?

- December 3rd, 2022
- Accessible nationally via online programming?
- All death loss types welcome to apply
- Priority given to frontline healthcare workers and other families grieving the death of someone from COVID?
- Free of charge for all families?

Just like traditional Camp Erin programming, Camp Erin Online is led by grief support professionals and caring volunteers offering a combination of traditional, fun camp activities with grief education and emotional support. Children, teens and adult caregivers are encouraged to come together to explore their grief, discover essential coping skills and learn that they are not alone. As always, Camp Erin is free of charge for all families.??

Camp Erin Online allows youth and families to:??

- Share their story in a safe environment?
- Process grief in healthy ways?
- Meet other youth and families with shared experiences?
- Learn they are not alone??
- Build a toolbox of coping skills?

- Honor and memorialize their loved ones?
- Have fun!?

This special opportunity is made possible through a partnership with the Brave of Heart Fund, founded by the Foundations of New York Life and Cigna and administered by E4E Relief. We are grateful for our partner's support!?
